ICA KIDS
CONVERSATION STARTERS

Inspired by works from the ICA exhibition i'm yours: Encounters with Art in Our Times, check out these conversation starters to help inspire dialogue in your family. Print, cut out, and use them whenever you need some inspiration. Visiting the ICA? Open on your mobile device, search for these works, and take turns asking questions as you move through the exhibition.

Simone Leigh, Cupboard IX, 2019. Stoneware, steel, and raffia, 78 × 60 × 80 inches (198.1 × 152.4 × 203.2 cm). Acquired through the generosity of Bridgitt and Bruce Evans and Fotene Demoulas and Tom Cotis. Courtesy the artist and Hauser & Wirth, New York and Los Angeles. © Simone Leigh

What do you do to show your friends and family that you care about them?

If you made a throne for yourself, what would you make it out of?

Describe a moment you had with your grandparent(s) that you remember really clearly.

Who is the family member you admire the most and why? If you were to take a photo with that family member, how would you pose?

Let’s pretend we’re drinking from this cup together. How would we move our bodies and hold the cup to share what’s inside?

What do you like to do to relax?

The artist asked the sitters to pick their clothing, the setting, and their posture. What would you choose if someone was making your portrait?

The objects found in homes can give clues about the people who live there. What is an object in your home that might give a clue about who you are and what or who is important to you?

By Amy Briggs Kemeza, Tour Programs Manager; Floylynda Jean, Education Assistant, Studio Programs; Jessie Miyu Magyar, School and Family Programs Manager; Brooke Scibelli, Family and Art Lab Programs Coordinator; and Kris Wilton, Director of Creative Content and Digital Engagement.