YUNG PUNX: A PUNK PARABLE

Friday Nov. 19 7:00pm

WITH A LIVE PERFORMANCE AFTER THE SCREENING!

Four little kids from working-class Massachusetts form a punk band called Color Killer for a talent show. An avalanche of bookings, studio sessions, and press hits follows, eventually landing Color Killer on the stage of the prestigious Warped Tour music festival. Wary audiences and warring parents create a rocky road to rock-and-roll stardom.

Student-made Films

Saturday Nov. 20 1:00pm

We will be showcasing our New England based student-made films! A Q&A with the student filmmakers follow the screenings. We have hand selected films from FC Academy, our summer filmmaking program, and included others from Raw Art Works in Lynn, MA and Smooth Feather Youth in Maine. Come out and celebrate the brilliant works that these student filmmakers have creatively put together.
